

the interface observable needs no twin, which halves the cost of a growth-rate study replaces the constraining body force $B_f = \partial \bar{Q} / \partial t - F(\bar{Q})$ , which would require modifying the solver